A Legacy of Journalism: Alumni Launch Mary Norman Fund

We extend our gratitude to Marie Kisner '69 and her fellow journalism classmates for their generous support of the AHHS Journalism Program. Their contribution marks the first gift from the newly established Mary Norman Journalism Fund, a meaningful step in ensuring that future generations of students have the resources and opportunities they need to thrive. Alumni support like this is vital to the continued success of our students; both today and for years to come.

Photographed: Kristin Cade, AHHS Journalism Teacher, with her upper-level Olmos & Hoofprint students and Marie Kisner.

Marie Kisner '69 & Mary Norman

Mary Norman taught journalism at Alamo Heights High School from 1967 to 1990 and sponsored the school newspaper, the Hoof Print, and the yearbook, the Olmos.

Legacy Giving

Like Marie, you can establish your own legacy gift at the Alamo Heights School Foundation to continue the Tradition of Excellence for future generations of Mules! There are many meaningful ways to make an impact on today's students and those of the future through a gift to the endowment, the establishment of a fund in support of an academic program, or through a special naming gift in honor of a loved one or in celebration of a special event.
